5. (Secret - JCG) Mr. [redacted] ONE, called concerning a query received from Al Peaslee, State Department. Mr. Peaslee needed advice for Secretary Eusk concerning a question raised by Senator John C. Pastore on 21 May at the Secretary's luncheon for key members of the Joint Committee on Atomic Energy. Senator Pastore had raised the question of Communist China's nuclear capabilities and steps to be taken to deal with the situation. Among other things, the Secretary indicated that recent intelligence information indicated the program was suffering from somewhat of a slow-down and that he would make an effort to have the information made available to the Committee. This raised the question of the release
